JAMAICA INN

ruNtiMe
3 X 1 HOUR

Set in 1820 against the forbidding backdrop of the windswept and isolated Cornish moors, this is an epic coming-of-age story charting the journey of young and spirited Mary Yellan. Following the death of her mother, Mary is forced to seek out her only living relative, her aunt Patience. But when Mary arrives at Jamaica Inn she discovers that her aunt is a shell of the carefree woman she remembers from childhood; instead she finds a drudge who is firmly under the spell of her domineering husband, Joss. Eerily, the inn has no guests – all the rooms are locked and kept for storage – and it soon becomes clear that it is a cover, as Joss is head of a smuggling ring and Jamaica Inn the hub of his 'free' trade. Mary fights to hold onto her morality and resist being drawn into the dangerous world of smuggling. But she finds herself fatally compromised when she falls for Jem Merlyn, Joss's roughly handsome younger brother. Jem stands for everything Mary despises and she fears that he is involved with Joss's gang, but in spite of this she finds her feelings for Jem difficult to fight. Mary's morals and loyalties become deeply conflicted and she is uncertain of who she can trust. She confides in the parish vicar, Francis Davey, and his sister, Hannah. But Davey's advice that she should use her position at the inn to glean as much information as she can about Joss's smuggling threatens to put Mary in grave danger. When revelations about the true depths of her uncle's exploits come to the fore, Mary knows what she must do. But with the noose tightening around all at Jamaica Inn and Mary finding herself increasingly isolated, she must trust her instincts and prepare for the fight of her life.

This adaptation of the Daphne du Maurier classic novel stars Jessica Brown Findlay (Downton Abbey, Labyrinth) as Mary, Matthew McNulty (The Paradise, Lark Rise to Candleford) as Jem, Sean Harris (The Borgias, Southcliffe) as Joss and Ben Daniels (House of Cards, Law & Order: UK), Shirley Henderson (Harry Potter, The Crimson Petal and the White) and Joanne Whalley (The Borgias, Gossip Girl). Produced by Emmy® and BAFTA® award-winning David M. Thompson, directed by BAFTA® winning Philippa Lowthorpe (Call the Midwife, The Other Boleyn Girl) and written by Golden Globe® nominated Emma Frost (The White Queen, Shameless).

SERIES 1: 10 X 1 HOUR

Dicte Svendsen is a 40-year-old reporter who, following her divorce, has moved back to her native town of Aarhus in Denmark with her 16-year-old daughter, Rose. This is a city that she would have preferred to forget, along with the memory of growing up as a Jehovah's Witness and the child she gave up as a young woman.

She is soon offered a new position as a crime editor at a local newspaper and immediately begins to clash with the police investigator, John Wagner. Working against and sometimes with each other, they face numerous emotionally difficult crimes that call for Dicte to take a moral stand. For the world-weary Wagner, it's always just a case but the courageous Dicte will do anything to make sure that the true story is told. As she is drawn further into the investigations, she is forced to confront the secrets of her past and the question of her true identity becomes increasingly apparent, whether searching for her lost son or sudden contact from her father who she hasn't spoken to for 20 years.

Ibén Hjejle (High Fidelity, Defiance) stars as Dicte Svendsen and Lars Brygmann (Borgen, Lykke) as John Wagner.

Series 2 of Wentworth picks up three months after Bea Smith killed Jacs Holt. During this time she has been languishing in the slot and Franky Doyle has risen to the position of top dog unopposed, ruling the prison with her smarts and loyal crew. But the sudden arrival of new governor Joan Ferguson is about to change all that.

Realising Bea is the only person with the prisoners' respect, Ferguson wants to rehabilitate her with the intention of pitting her against Franky to create a top dog she can control. But Bea has other plans and vows to avenge her daughter's murder. How does someone locked up in a prison achieve such a seemingly impossible ambition?

In October 2004, Schapelle Corby was arrested at Bali airport with over 4kg of marijuana in her luggage. Narrowly avoiding the death penalty, Schapelle was sentenced to 20 years in Bali's notorious Kerobokan Prison where she became a household name around the world.

Based on the controversial events that unfolded, Schapelle follows the arrest, trial and conviction of this 27-year-old Australian as well as the ensuing media frenzy that erupted as the world's press followed the story at every step.

She always proclaimed her innocence and in February 2014 was freed on parole. Her case had become a real-life soap opera that shocked and divided the world's press, but a decade after her arrest the question remains, did she really do it?

THE MAKING OF A LADY

This classic tale tells the story of the well-born, educated but penniless Emily, played by Lydia Wilson (Never Let Me Go, About Time), who during her daily duties as a lady’s companion for Lady Maria (played by Joanna Lumley), comes into contact with her employer’s wealthy widower nephew, Lord James Walderhurst, played by Linus Roache (Batman Begins, Law & Order, Titanic).

Accepting his practical if unromantic marriage proposal, lonely Emily seeks solace in the company of Walderhurst’s handsome nephew, Captain Alec Osborn, played by James D’Arcy (Cloud Atlas, Hitchcock) and his beautiful Indian wife, Hester.

But all is not what it seems as an increasingly contented Emily has no inkling her life is actually in danger. Whilst Walderhurst risks his life overseas, his wife seems powerless to avoid the threat that begins to encircle her. The arrival of Hester’s servant, the mysterious Ameerah, only serves to heighten the jeopardy surrounding Emily.

Based on the forgotten classic novel by celebrated playwright Frances Hodgson Burnett (The Secret Garden, A Little Princess, Little Lord Fauntleroy).

HOLY FLYING CIRCUS

ruNtiMe
1 X 2 HOUR

Holy Flying Circus is a fantastical reimagining of the controversy in both the USA and UK prior to the theatrical release of Life Of Brian. It follows Michael Palin and John Cleese's defence of the film on the BBC2 discussion programme 'Friday Night, Saturday Morning' in 1979. Written by Tony Roche (In The Loop, The Thick of It) and directed by Owen Harris (Misfits, Secret Diary of A Call Girl), Holy Flying Circus is a funny and truly original look at how Monty Python struggled with censorship in the release of Life of Brian.

Monty Python are one of the most-loved British comedy groups. The Python phenomenon developed from the television series into touring stage shows, films, numerous albums, several books and a stage musical, as well as launching the members to international stardom. Their influence on comedy has been compared to The Beatles' influence on music. Summer 2014 will see the Pythons reunited for the first live (mostly) gigs in England for 40 years.

The 1960s was the decade America transformed from a country of conformity to a land of political, cultural and social liberation. The events of that tumultuous ten-year period reshaped America to such an extent that it still remains an epoch of fascination today and every step of the way, television helped frame and enable that change. Looking through the lens of television, The Sixties weaves together the events and personalities that influenced and dominated the 1960s in America, sketching a portrait of this remarkable decade that is both entertaining and illuminating. Featuring unique perspectives and rare, original footage, The Sixties will not just re-examine the familiar... it will unearth the unknown.

The feature film, The Class of '92, details the rise to prominence and global sporting superstardom of six talented young Manchester United footballers (David Beckham, Nicky Butt, Ryan Giggs, Paul Scholes, Phil and Gary Neville). Covering the period 1992 – 1999, the story culminates in Manchester United's European Cup triumph, whilst dramatically interweaving the highs and lows of its football odyssey with the immense social and cultural changes taking place in Britain at the time.

At the heart of this ambitious film is the tale of how six 14-year-old working-class lads from diverse backgrounds became the spine of the most lauded team in world football and who, throughout their period of unparalleled success, remained best mates. The Class of '92 has the unique distinction of unprecedented access to all six players and also features insightful interviews with high-profile political and cultural figures of the time, including Zinedine Zidane, Tony Blair, Mani from the Stone Roses, Eric Cantona and Danny Boyle.

Steve McQueen will forever be recognised as one of Hollywood's most iconic movie stars. His rugged good looks, bad-boy sexuality and searing charisma set him apart as he grew from a small-town thug to become the highest paid and most sought-after actor of his generation.

He was notorious for challenging authority and lived life for himself. Nicknamed the "King of Cool", his volatile yet enduring anti-hero persona was as much a part of who he really was as an individual as the characters he portrayed on-screen.

Combining extensive original interviews, including a rare interview with Steve McQueen, the best of Steve's major motion pictures, and archival footage, the film chronicles McQueen's extraordinary career while focusing on the correlation between his on-screen and off-screen experiences. Digging deep into underexplored aspects of the McQueen legacy, I Am Steve McQueen tells the incredible life story of this legendary actor, racer and cultural icon.

ruNtiMe
SERIES 1: 20 X 30 MINS

A-Team legend Mr T searches the four corners of the earth for some of the biggest fools on the planet. From drivers to dancers, criminals to workmen, drunks to sailors, people jumping off stuff to people getting stuck in things, no stone will be left unturned in his search for the world's most incredible and idiotic imbeciles.

World's Craziest Fools marks the long-awaited return of Mr T to our television screens.
